

Lincoln University Students' Association

President

Position Description

Last Updated:	August 2024
Job Title:	President
Approval Authority	LUSA Executive
Reports To:	Lincoln University Students through the LUSA Executive

Organisational Purpose and Background

That LU students will have the best student experience possible

LUSA is the Lincoln University Students' Association and represents the common and collective concerns of students at Lincoln University. LUSA was established in 1919, it is made up of a democratically elected Executive of students, and staff. The Executive typically changes every year with a typical term being 1 December to 30 November.

The Executive is the voice of Lincoln University students and monitor and review the general direction and objectives of the Association, and the Staff working in LUSA put this into action by implementing a variety of student focused initiatives. LUSA provides a voice for Lincoln students; they are independent from Lincoln University and focus on getting the best outcomes of students whilst working in partnership with Lincoln University to ensure they do the same.

Position Purpose Statement

The President is responsible for representing Lincoln University students on all matters that impact their University experiences. Accordingly they provide leadership to the Lincoln University Students' Association and its Executive, and by extension the Lincoln University Student Body. The President is responsible for attending to and reporting to the Executive on all matters relating to academia and student experience at Lincoln University. The President is subsequently appointed as the Student Representative on the Lincoln University Council for this purpose.

The President is the Chair of the LUSA Executive and Advisory Panel, and is subsequently responsible for ensuring there is good and effective governance of the Association.

Term and Remuneration

The President is employed by a fixed term individual employment agreement with a salary of $57,500 per annum (pursuant to the Executive Remuneration Policy). The term of the agreement is normally 1 December to 30 November of each year. The total remuneration package includes any and all fees received from Lincoln University Council, after which LUSA is responsible for paying the remainder.

LUSA will provide a laptop as determined by the General Manager.

After election and prior to December 1 of the following year, the President-elect may be paid for up to three weeks as part of a formal transition period.

The President may take up to four weeks leave during their term without any deductions to the honorarium. There is no entitlement for any un-used leave balance to be paid out at the end of the term or 12-month period. It is expected that the President works on average 40 hours a week to receive the full honorarium.
